

REMARKS

Applicants hereby reply to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment dated March 24, 2008. Applicants' attorney, Suvashis Bhattacharya (Reg. No. 46,554) had a telephone discussion with Examiner Jeffrey Brier on April 22, 2008 regarding the alleged non-compliant amendment. It was discussed that an amendment was filed by Applicants on January 28, 2008. Following, the Examiner had mailed an interview summary discussing the January 28th amendment. Inadvertently, a response to the interview summary was filed on March 3, 2008 amending the claims in response to the interview summary. Upon discussing this with the Examiner, it became apparent that the interview summary referred to the January 28th filed amendment and thus did not warrant a response. Accordingly, Applicants request that the amendment filed March 3, 2008 be rescinded and let the January 28th, 2008 amendment stand. A clean copy of the claims as filed on January 28th begin on Page 2 of this paper.

During the discussion with the Examiner, however, it also became apparent that the phrase "visual disturbances" in Claims 53, 55, 56, and 61 in the January 28th amendment should actually have been "a visual disturbance." Applicants therefore take this opportunity to further amend Claims 53, 55, 56 and 61 of the earlier filed January 28th amendment to now recite "a visual disturbance." Support for this amendment is found in Applicants' specification on Page 23, Lines 29-33 and Page 25, Lines 4-8.

Applicants' respectfully request allowance of this case in light of the above remarks and amendments. Applicants' attorney invites the Examiner to contact him if any further questions arise from this reply. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account 50-1698.

Respectfully submitted,

THELEN REID BROWN RAYSMAN
